

Give Me a Home Among the Gumtrees

I've been around the world
A couple of times, or maybe more,
I've seen the sites, I've had delights
On every foreign shore.
But when my friends all ask me 'bout
The place that I adore,
I tell them right away.

CHORUS:

Give me a home among the gum trees,
With lots of plum trees,
A sheep or two, a kangaroo.
A clothes line out the back,
Verandah out the front
And an old rocking chair.

I'll be standing in the kitchen
Cooking up a roast,
With Vegemite on toast,
Just you and me, a cup of tea.
And later on we'll settle down beside the hitching post
And watch the possums play.

CHORUS

There's a Safeway on the corner
And a Woolworths down the street,
And a new one's just been opened up
Where they regulate the heat.
But I'd trade them all tomorrow
For a simple bush retreat
Where the kookaburras sing.

CHORUS

Some people like their houses built
With fences all around,
Others live in mansions,
And some beneath the ground,
But me I love the bush you know,
With lizards running 'round
And a pumpkin vine out the back.
